IN RE: CASE ASSIGNMENTS FOR SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS

The Circuit Judges have determined that the case assignment method to be followed in assigning filings for post judgmental relief in civil cases will be as follows until the further Order of this Court. This Order modifies the General Order dated August 19, 1975, and the Amended Administrative Order #86-30-B.

1. Request for post judgmental relief in all civil cases will be handled as follows:
 - a. If a request for post judgment relief is filed seeking either modification of support proceedings or enforcement thereof or further supplementary relief, and the Judge signing the most recently entered Order or Judgment is still in the Civil Division, then the new request for post judgmental relief will be assigned to that Judge for handling. This request will be treated as a new filing.
 - b. In the event the Judge who has signed the most recently entered Order or Judgment is no longer in the Civil Division, then the request for post judgmental relief will be treated as a new filing and assigned accordingly.
2. Except as modified herein, all of the other applicable provisions of said General Order dated August 19, 1975, and Amended Administrative Order #86-30-B and subsequent Administrative Orders shall be and remain in full force and effect.
